The internet has changed the way we live, work, communicate, and learn. It has become the most important source of information for everyone; a few years ago, learning the art of writing a well-organized research paper from the scratch seemed like an impossible feat.

This is also true for the standard of Academic Ethical standards. Over the last decade, the internet has emerged as the perfect medium for the students to get their work done in a short period of time. This is true for the college students, but it has even made a mark on the high schools as well.
